Two-day camp workshops

Call Todd at 303-770-6696 for details about the student's ability level so that you sign up for the appropriate workshop. Most students who know piece movements and are familiar with basic chess principles will be of sufficient skill level to attend an Intermediate Camp Workshop. Parents may attend.

All Camp Workshops run from 9 a.m.– 4 p.m. each day. Participants should bring their own lunch, snacks, beverages each day. Food will not be provided. Lunch break is 12-1 each day. Space is limited for these training camps. Call Todd Bardwick at (303) 770-6696 with any questions.

I grant permission for my child to participate in the Chess Academy of Denver Camp Workshop. There is no guarantee or warranty that any participant will be at any specific skill level when he/she completes the camp. I understand that the enrollment fee is non-refundable even if the child does not wholly or partially participate in the camp due to a change of plans, sickness, or if the child leaves early due to disruptive behavior. All participants are to abide by all rules and regulations and be on their best behavior. There is to be full cooperation with supervisory and volunteer personnel. Any violation or unfulfilling of behavior standards will result in that individual being sent home at his/her and/or parent's expense. Each participant in the camp is responsible for his/her own safety. In case of accident or illness, the camp is authorized to secure emergency medical treatment. No medications of any kind (prescription or over-the-counter) will be given orally to campers without written parental permission. Chess Academy of Denver is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged personal articles. I authorize Colorado Master Chess to use the name of, any photographs, slides, or videotapes of the participant named on this application for promotional purposes. Camp Workshops may be taped and recorded. I agree to indemnify and hold the Chess Academy of Denver, Colorado Master Chess, Inc., and its instructors and supervisors as well as other camp participants and their families harmless from any liability for loss, injury, death, cost or expense (including attorney's fees, medical and ambulance costs) that may incur as a result of my child participating in the camp workshop. This release of liability specifically includes losses, injuries, death, costs or expenses which occur as the result of negligence. I further agree to hold the instructors, supervisors, any agents and/or employees of Colorado Master Chess, Inc. as well as other camp participants and their families, harmless, and indemnify them generally and specifically, from all such liability. I also agree to pay for any property damages charged to the camp that may result from my child's actions. I understand that I will return at 4:00 p.m. each day to pick up my child. Agents, instructors, supervisors and/or employees of Colorado Master Chess, Inc. assume no responsibility for the ultimate release of the child to the custody of an identified individual or individuals picking up said child at the termination of each day.
